TONIGHT AT THE RIVER—THE PEOPLE'S FAVORITE COTTON BLOSSOM PRESENTING "WHAT MONEY CAN'T BUY"

NIGHT SCHOOL

Will Have Its First Session Tonight
 In The High School Building With
 Prof. William Jones in Charge of the Classes.

The first session of the Night School will be held in the High School building tonight with Prof. William Jones, head of the Commercial Department of the High School in charge of the classes.

About two weeks ago a meeting was called at the High School to learn of the demand for such a course of instruction that could be given in the Night School. Only a few were in attendance but several had mentioned to Superintendent Caplinger that they were desirous of taking the course but were unable to be present at the meeting. Mr. Caplinger said that the matter would be brought before the attention of the Board of Education on the Friday night following and if there was enough demand for the school it would begin on October 2.

At the Board meeting the gentlemen comprising that body seemed unwilling to have a Night School in the building unless there were at least 15 in the classes. The building, light, heat, etc., were to be furnished by the board while the pupils were to pay a certain sum for tuition. Enough had not made known their desire by last Monday to start the school but since that time there has been a number of inquiries concerning the school and several more have expressed their willingness to take the courses offered.

Classes will be held in business arithmetic, business English, penmanship and spelling, stenography and typewriting. The work will be under the supervision of Prof. William Jones. Session will be held three times per week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday. The sessions will last two hours, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

This is an excellent opportunity for those desiring to take a course along the lines of business as Mr. Jones is regarded as one of the best commercial teachers that could be obtained. Recommendations and last year graduates came to Maysville with excellent praise those under his tutelage. All those desiring to take the course should see Prof. Caplinger, if they have not already done so, and tell him of their thirst for knowledge.

GIRLS WANTED

All girls who desire employment in the Maysville Twine and Fly Net Factory will apply at once to Secretary-Manager Chamber of Commerce, First National Bank building. $4.00 per week guaranteed beginners.

McNAMER BAKERY

Purchased by Baker W. L. Traxel—Former Owner of That Plant Accepts Position With the Purchaser.

Mr. Clyde McNamer, who has conducted a bakery on West Second street for the past several months, closed a deal last week whereby Mr. W. L. Traxel comes into possession of his plant and he takes the position as head baker in his purchasers plant.

On Wednesday of last week the dough mixer of the Traxel Bakery broke and Mr. Traxel asked for the use of Mr. McNamer's machinery until his own could be repaired. He was allowed to do so and afterwards asked to purchase the plant. The latter gentleman asked that he be given a position with Mr. Traxel and this request was granted. Mr. McNamer becoming the head baker in the Traxel establishment.

In addition to taking over the McNamer Bakery it is rumored that Mr. Traxel will purchase the Diener Bakery on Market street in the near future. Traxel bread would then be again supreme in this city.

FIRST STANDARD BANK

Files Articles of Incorporation With County Clerk J. J. Owens Saturday
 —Will Begin Business
 October 19.

Articles of incorporation of the First Standard Bank were filed with County Clerk J. J. Owens Saturday, to be forwarded to the Secretary of State at Frankfort to be filed and a charter granted.

The new bank is a combination of the First National and Standard Banks and will be known as the First Standard Bank and Trust Co. It will do a general business of banking and including the business of a commercial and savings bank and the business of a trust company, having all the powers of a combined bank and trust company. The capital stock of the new concern is placed at $175,000 divided into 1750 shares of $100 each. Hon. J. N. Kehoe is the largest stockholder, having 226 shares.

The bank will begin business under its new charter October 19, the charter continuing in effect for 100 years. The affairs of the corporation will be conducted by a president, first vice president, second vice president, third vice president, cashier, assistant cashier, and a board of directors consisting of 15 members. These officers will be elected for the term of one year on the second Tuesday in January of each year. Those elected for the remainder of this year are:

President—Hon. J. N. Kehoe.

First Vice-President — Thomas A. Keith.

Second Vice-President — S. P. Browning.

Third Vice-President—L. G. Maltby.

Cashier—J. B. Durrett.

Assistant Cashier—James E. Threlkeld.

Directors—E. L. Worthington, E. C. Slack, W. H. Mackay, L. G. Maltby, J. N. Kehoe, S. F. Reed, J. B. Durrett, S. P. Browning, E. G. Downing, John H. Clarke, Thomas A. Keith, P. P. Parker, J. C. Rogers, LeWright Browning and Scott Fletcher.

The highest amount of indebtedness the corporation can undergo at one time is a sum not exceeding $175,000.

This leaves Maysville with only one national bank and gives her three strong state banks. The new corporation will represent deposits of a million and a half of dollars and will be one of the strongest banks in the state. The gentlemen at the head of the concern are noted throughout the county for their straightforward business methods and are marked with an old fashioned courtesy that is distinctive.

The business of the new bank will be conducted in the First National Bank building. Extensive remodeling will go on in the interior of the building and a new front will be placed. Everything points to a very successful business for the bank.

THE COTTON BLOSSOM SHOW BOAT AT THE RIVER TONIGHT

The Cotton Blossom Floating Theater will be at the river tonight offering one of the prettiest plays ever offered in this city, "What Money Can't Buy." They also have five acts of vaudeville which makes a complete and continuous performance. Owing to the posters being mislaid in the morning no advance notices were received here but nevertheless the name of the Cotton Blossom is enough to assure them of a good house, as the people always get value received whenever this boat stops with us. The band gave a concert on the streets this morning, also a concert on the boat tonight previous to the opening of the doors. Don't forget tonight at the river, the Cotton Blossom in, "What Money Can't Buy."

ON TO PADUCAH

Yesterday Messrs. Hamlet C. Sharp, J. Banks Durrett, George T. Barbour, N. Sudduth Calhoun and Winslow W. Ball left for Paducah where they went to attend the meetings of the Kentucky Bankers' Association, which convenes in that city tomorrow for a two-days' session. If there is anything good to be had at this meeting and this delegation fails to land it, the one that beats them to it will have to go some.

BOY HAS DIPHTHERIA

Master Jack Kirk, son of Banker E. T. Kirk, is suffering a case of diphtheria at his home on West Second street. The case is reported as rather light and that he is getting along nicely.

STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY

Mrs. Eunice O'Donnell of Bridge street was stricken with apoplexy at her home on last Friday. Her condition is pronounced critical.

MUCH PRAISE

Is One Those Who Were Instrumental in Getting the Kentucky State Sunday School Association Convention to Come to This City in 1917.

The announcement that the Kentucky State Sunday School Association would hold its annual session in this city in 1917, the first news of which appeared exclusively in Saturday's Ledger, created a bit of comment among the Sunday School workers of this city and county.

The credit for getting the convention to come to this city must fall chiefly upon Miss Mary Wilson of this city, although several others from the city and county were in attendance at the meeting of the City Sunday School Board and they seemed to think that such a convention would be an excellent thing for this city. She had previously obtained the O. K. of the Chamber of Commerce to ask the convention here. When she went to the Convention she presented the claims of this city for the convention.

Ashland was the only other city in the state that seemed to care to have the convention next year. Indeed, so close was the race between the two that Maysville won by the narrow margin of three votes. Maysville is somewhat more centrally located than Ashland and considering the fact that the convention has not been held in this city for 35 years we were the lucky city.

The local board will begin preparing some things for the convention at once although a great many details must be worked out later. Plans will be made throughout the entire winter for an excellent convention and help to bear out Maysville's reputation as a good convention city. The co-operation of all the church workers in the city is asked to make the convention a very successful one.

GAVE EXCELLENT MUSIC

The Bluegrass Concert Band of this city furnished the music for the Maysville Colored Fair on Friday and Saturday. They gave excellent music, playing some of the latest popular music as well as some of the more classic. Their music was greatly enjoyed.

TAKEN SICK IN CHURCH

Mrs. G. A. McCarthy was taken suddenly ill in the Christian Church and had to be removed to her home. She is reported as better this morning.

"The Home of QUALITY Clothes"

News of Interest to Everyone

Nowadays we read a great deal in the papers about the high cost of woollens, the scarcity of dye-stuffs, and the rise in labor—which is all true, and must necessarily affect the price of clothes.

But we were one of the few houses in the Ohio Valley who were fortunate enough to have made the bulk of our fall purchase during the early part of 1916, which enables us to sell you goods at the same old price as you paid last year. Many houses are obliged to raise their prices, but we are not, and are going to give you the benefit of our early purchase.

All of our new Suits, Overcoats, Shoes, Hats and Furnishings are now in—all dependable merchandise, up to our high standard of quality—and the prices are no higher than last year.
